1 Peter 1:22; 4:7-9

<sup>22</sup> Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, <sup>23</sup> since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;

TALK SHEET

---

1. What is the prerequisite for the type of “one another” community in 1 Peter 1:22? Look at Verse 23.
2. Where do the resources or ability to live in community, to do the “one anothers,” come from? Explain.
3. When was the last time you needed to love someone to cover a multitude of, or even a few, of your sins?
4. How long has it been since you were close enough to someone to be frustrated by them? How God helped you in that situation?
5. Is it possible to live obedient to the gospel without other people? Explain.
6. Have you found living in community to be hard or helpful? Explain.
7. Pray that the Holy Spirit would help you love each other earnestly.
